Statement of U.S. Senator Russ Feingold
National Police Week

“This week, we honor the heroic law enforcement officers who have given their lives protecting their communities. These fallen officers and their families deserve our unending respect and gratitude. We are forever indebted to them for their sacrifices and to all law enforcement officers who put themselves in harm's way to protect others. I will continue to work in Congress to help our law enforcement officers fight crime as safely and efficiently as possible. As we mark National Police Week, I join every American in paying tribute to the officers who have sacrificed to keep us safe.”
