Statement on Assembly Bill 540

Madison – Representative Joel Kleefisch (R-Oconomowoc) released the following statement regarding tomorrow’s hearing for Assembly Bill 540 in the Committee on Family Law.

“After careful deliberation and consulting with my colleagues, I have decided to pull back AB 540. While I am frustrated by the amount of misinformation the bill has encountered, I believe a fair and equitable child support system, one that fundamentally recognizes the value of both parents in the upbringing of a child, is an important issue and one that warrants serious conversation.

“I have worked on this issue for a long time and I am hopeful that those who truly care about healthy family units will join me in the search for an equitable solution. I would like to thank Chairman Tom Larson for his understanding on this matter and I look forward to the work ahead.”
